

Giddens School Part-time Extended Day Teacher

Giddens School offers Pre-School through 5th grade students an education grounded in the belief that critical thinking and social responsibility form the basis of an academically excellent curriculum. Giddens School is one of the most ethnically, economically, and socially diverse independent schools in the Northwest. Students graduate as curious, socially responsive, creative young people who are well-prepared for a lifetime of learning. Please visit our website for more information, www.giddensschool.org.

Job Description and Responsibilities

Applicants must be available to work between the hours of 2:00 pm – 6:00 pm, Monday – Friday. Additional hours also available to well-qualified candidates.

The main responsibility of an Extended Day teacher is to provide highly engaging activities for children, while maintaining a positive, safe, and fun environment. Staff must uphold the values and goals of Giddens School, including positive performance in preparedness, attendance and punctuality.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Lead groups of curious, energetic, and creative children in a variety of highly engaging projects/activities each day that are appropriate and adaptable for ages within assigned group.
- Infuse social justice and equity into each day.
- Include educational objectives supporting project-based learning.
- Provide a professional level of communication with students, families, and Giddens staff.

Education and Training

Previous professional experience working with children is preferred. A strong applicant will have developed skill sets in organization, lesson and activity planning/implementation, classroom management, conflict resolution, adaptability, and critical thinking.

All staff must have:

- Current First Aid/CPR and BBP/HIV training certification, or be willing to obtain within 6 months of hire
- Current TB test results
- 20 Hour STARS training, or be willing to obtain within 1 year of hire

Pay range: $16.00 – $17.00, depending on education and experience.

Position is open until filled. No phone calls, please. Please send a cover letter and resume to employment@giddensschool.org